

Cookies policy

version from 01/05/2026

The document below sets out the rules for the use of cookies on the europa.jobs Website administered by PRACUJ W UNII - EUROPA SP. Z O.O. with headquarters in Wrocław, ul. Nenckiego 136A, entered into the register of entrepreneurs kept by the District Court for Wrocław-Fabryczna in Wrocław, 6th Commercial Division of the National Court Register under number 0000509786, with the tax identification number (NIP) 899-27-54-745.

1. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

These are small text files created by our Website and saved on the disk of your computer or other device through which you connect to the Internet. They collect information about how you use the Website.

2. WHAT KIND OF COOKIES DO WE USE?

The following cookies may be used on our website:

- a. session cookies - temporary, stored on your device until logging out or leaving the Website or turning off the web browser. We use them to recognize the device, they contain information about system settings.
- b. persistent cookies - stored for the time specified in their parameters or until you delete them yourself from the browser. They may contain the same information as session cookies. They enable optimization of the use of the Website, e.g. they remember your passwords or preferences regarding the settings of our Website. They also allow us to analyze and improve the functionality of the website.
- c. third-party cookies - these are information from external websites, e.g. from advertising servers, company servers and service providers cooperating with europa.jobs. This type of cookies allows you to customize ads to your preferences and habits. Thanks to them, you can evaluate the effectiveness of advertisements and create the so-called general user profiles.

3. FOR WHAT PURPOSE DO WE USE COOKIES?

- a. optimization of the speed and functionality of the Website - we use cookies so that you can log in to your account, use the services of our Website available to logged in users, so that you can smoothly and comfortably navigate the Website without having to repeat the authentication process each time or choose your own preferences. These files also allow us to maintain the security of the IT system.
- b. collecting and analyzing statistics - using cookies, we examine and analyze user behavior on the Website, thanks to which we can develop our Services
- c. for advertising purposes - using cookies, we present our offer on other websites

4. MANAGING COOKIES

You have the option to manage the sharing and storage of cookies thanks to the settings of your web browser.

If, after entering our Website and displaying the message about the use of cookies, you continue to use the Website, it means that you accept our cookie policy.

If you do not want us to use cookies for advertising purposes, you can opt out of their storage here:

- Facebook / Meta: <https://www.facebook.com/settings/cookie>
- Google: <https://adssettings.google.com/authenticated>
- Criteo: <https://www.criteo.com/privacy/disable-criteo-services-on-internet-browsers/>